

Round table

Importance of the EU Cohesion Policy for Development in Croatia

House of Europe, Augusta Cesarca 4,
Zagreb

Wednesday, 31 January 2018

Program¹

10:30-11:00	Registration
11:00 – 11:15	Welcoming words <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Jakša Puljiz, Head of the European Integration Department, IRMO, Zagreb- Branko Baričević, Head of the EC Representation in the Republic of Croatia- Višnja Samardžija, Coordinator of the Jean Monnet project POLO-CRO28, IRMO, Zagreb
11:15 – 12:45	Presentations: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Aurelio Cecilio, Head of Unit for Bulgaria, Croatia and Slovenia in DG Regio of the European Commission: Implementation of Cohesion Policy During the 2014-2020 Financial Perspective, What Have We Learned?- Sanja Maleković, Institute for Development and International Relations (IRMO) Zagreb: Impact of Cohesion Policy on Regional Development in the Republic of Croatia- Zvonimir Savić, Director of Sector for Financial Institutions, Business Information and Economic Analysis, Croatian Chamber of Commerce: Use of the EU funds in Croatia During 2014-2020 Perspective - What are the First Results?- Anto Bajo, Institute for Public Finance (IJF): Importance of the EU Funds for the State Budget and Budgets of the Local and Regional Units Discussion
12:45 – 14:00	Panel discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Aurelio Cecilio, DG Regio- Ana Odak, Assistant Minister at the Ministry of Regional Development and EU Funds of the Republic of Croatia- Anto Bajo, Institute for Public Finance (IJF) Moderator: Jakša Puljiz , IRMO
14:00	Reception

¹ Working languages of the round table are Croatian and English.